The candidates participating will be running for NC Senate District 48 (Chuck Edwards and Norm Bossert), NC House of Representatives District 113 (Cody Henson and Sam Edney) and NC House of Representatives District 117 (Chuck McGrady and Gayle Kemp). The forum will occur at the City of Hendersonville Operations Center, located at 305 Williams Street.

One question will be prepared on each of the following topics: the economy (taxes and spending), redistricting, healthcare, public education, voting rights, affordable housing, a healthy economy, the environment, secure elections, immigration (state and local), family values and human rights, and gun rights and regulations. Questions will be chosen randomly, and there should be time for at least six topics to be covered. No questions will be taken from the audience during the forum.
