From the President

We have two annual events in December, each year they get better and bigger. So make your reservation for the 10th Annual Elected Officials breakfast. We already have received RSVPs from local, state and federal officials. So make plans to come and have breakfast with us. We're starting at 8 a.m. but you can get there a little early to get your food and get settled. Bring your guests and your questions.

Our Holiday Party is a little different this year. We're donating board books (hard covers) to the Adolescent Parenting Program of the Children and Family Resource Center. We'll be wrapping the books at our party. Bring a traditional treat and we'll provide the liquid refreshments. We'll sip and wrap and tell a few stories of our own. We'll bring the paper and tape - you bring the books. If you can't bring a book, make a donation. We love sharing the holidays with League and our community

Looking forward,

Judy

Holiday Party con't :

Gift of Words - The Adolescent Parenting Program at the Children and Family Resource Center works to help teenage mothers have a healthy pregnancy, complete their education, learn parenting skills, avoid another pregnancy, acquire new financial/life skills and build a more positive life for themselves and their children. The program currently serves 34 parents. Our goals for our Holiday Party is to gift 34 books for children 0-5 years. But of course we can use more. Reading to our children is fundamental and “The Gift of Words” is always welcome. Bring a book, bring a friend, bring a donation. Don't forget to RSVP!

Report from November Meeting on Economic Development

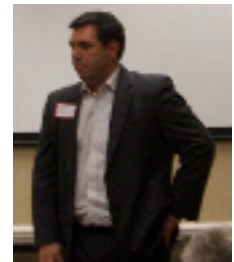

Our speakers were: John Mitchell with Henderson County; Mark Williams from Agribusiness, and Andrew Tate from Partnership for Economic Development.

Mark Williams talks members about economic development for local agriculture

Members had plenty of time to ask questions of our guests. It was a lively Q and A. Our guests responded to issues such as affordable housing, education, farmland preservation and industrial recruitment

Andrew Tate is the CEO and President of the public private partnership, Partnership for Economic Development
